Academic Coordinator

A request to the DCI that he send two delegates to the 87th annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science in Philadelphia in late April has been referred to the DDI for action. The topic for the Academy's meeting this year is "China in Transition."

At the request of the Office of Employment, we have agreed to provide a presentation/discussion in late March for four professors in the social sciences at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania. They will travel here at their own expense. According to our records, there are 22 graduates of the college working in the Agency; they have a strong language studies program which emphasizes oral proficiency.
